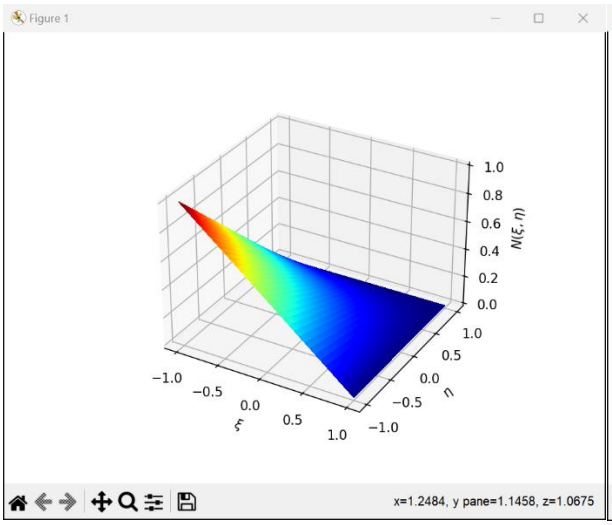
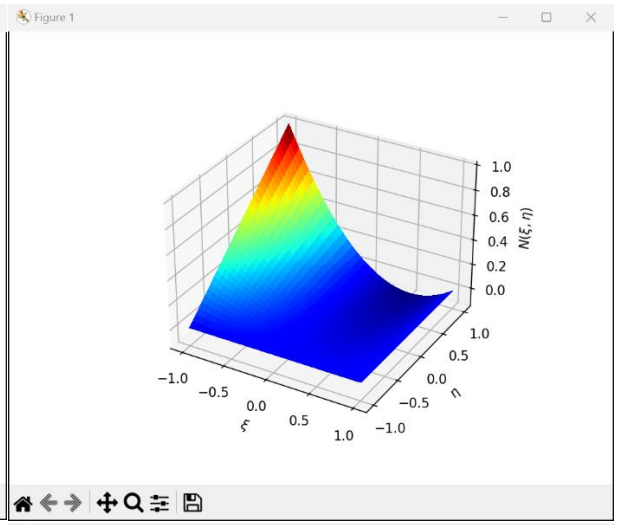
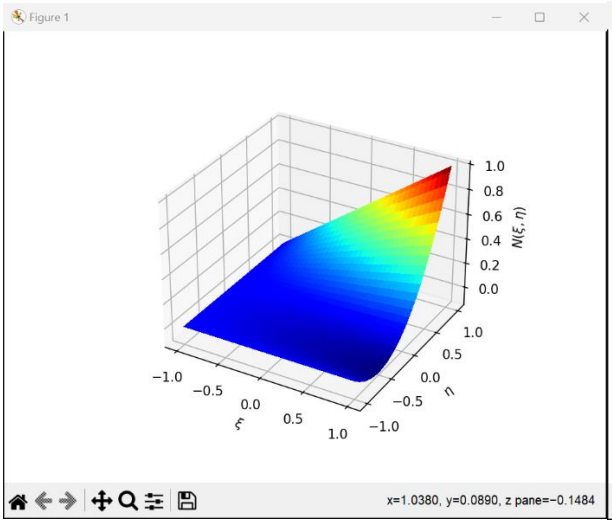
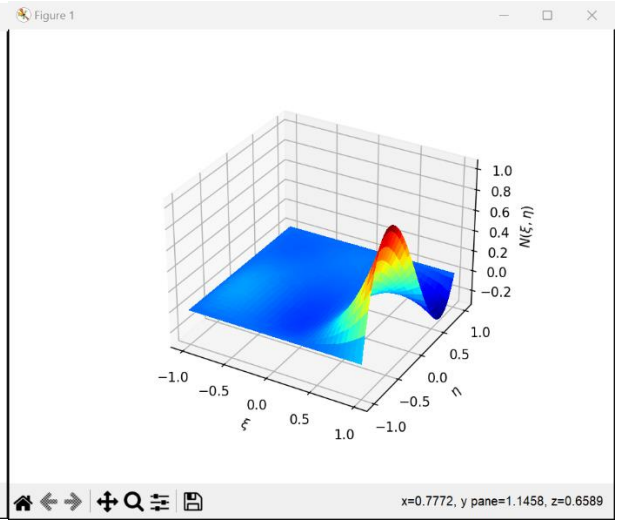
Homework 6

Part 1

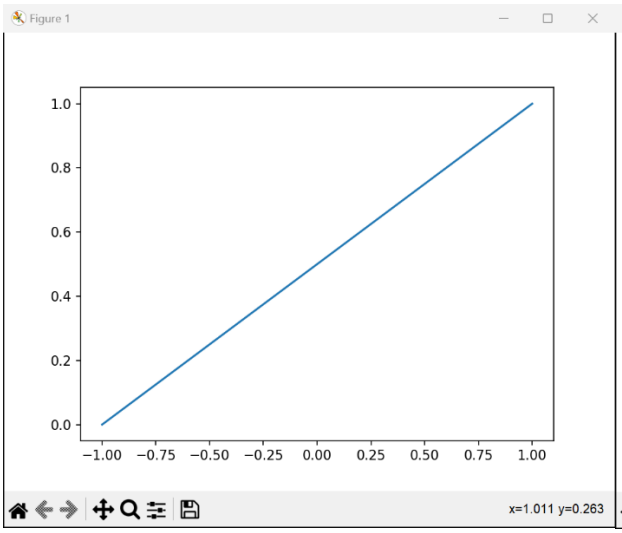


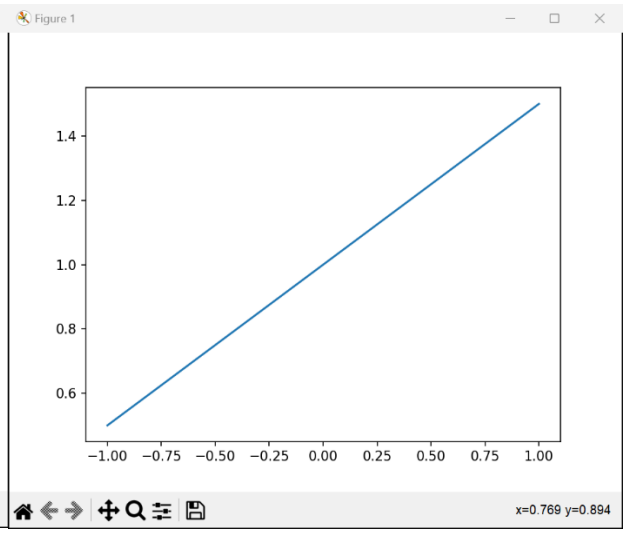


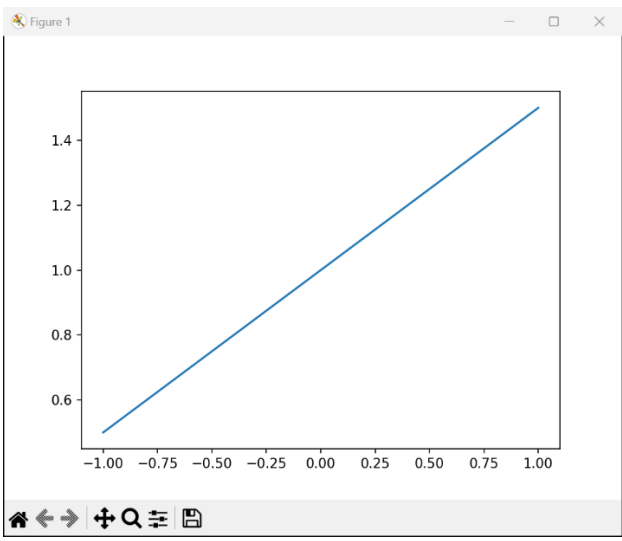


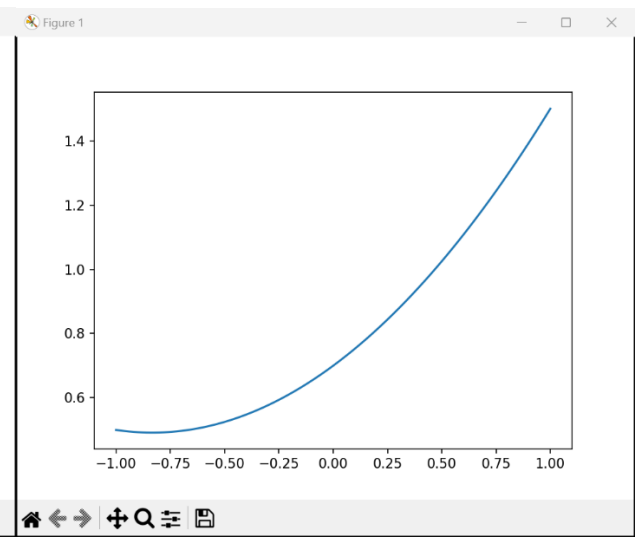


Part 2

The mapping is linear when the ratio of the distance between spatial coordinates and parent coordinates is constant for all intervals.








Gaussian quadrature is defined on [-1,1] so the parent coordinates should be on this interval to allow for this integration.